UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

² “Retained criminal defense attorneys are expected to make financial arrangements satisfactory to themselves and sufficient to provide for representation of their client until the conclusion of the client’s action. Unless the Court, within fourteen (14) days after arraignment, is notified in writing of counsel’s withdrawal because of Defendant’s failure to make satisfactory arrangements, the Court will expect counsel to represent the Defendant through the conclusion of the client’s action...Failure of a Defendant to pay sums owed for attorney’s fees or failure of counsel to collect the sum sufficient to compensate for all the services usually required of defense counsel will normally not constitute good cause for withdrawal after said fourteen-day period has expired.” S.D. Ala. CrLR 44(a)(1).
